Adjusted EBITDA for the second fiscal quarter of 2024 was $2.9 million, up 107% year-over-year

NEW YORK, Nov. 30, 2023 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Aeries Technology (Nasdaq: AERT), a global professional services and consulting partner, today reported results of Aark Singapore Pte. Ltd. for the second fiscal quarter and first fiscal half 2024 ended September 30, 2023. On November 6, 2023, Aark Singapore Pte. Ltd., the parent company of Aeries Technology Group Business Accelerators Pte. Ltd., completed a business combination with Worldwide Webb Acquisition Corp., a publicly traded special purpose acquisition company. Following the business combination, Aark Singapore Pte. Ltd. became a subsidiary of the resulting public company, now known as Aeries Technology, Inc.

"We are happy to have successfully navigated the path to our public listing and are pleased with our results so far this year," said Sudhir Panikassery, CEO of Aeries Technology. "I am incredibly proud of the entire team's execution, and excited to have welcomed both Rajeev Nair as CFO and Daniel Webb as CIO this month, adding to our already deep talent pool. We saw a significant acceleration in both top and bottom line results in the second fiscal quarter and believe we are well positioned to execute on our medium to long-term growth strategy."

Non-GAAP Financial Measures

The company uses non-GAAP financial information and believes it is useful to investors as it provides additional information to facilitate comparisons of historical operating results, identify trends in its underlying operating results and provide additional insight and transparency on how it evaluates the business. The company uses non-GAAP financial measures to budget, make operating and strategic decisions, and evaluate its performance. The company has detailed the non-GAAP adjustments that it makes in the non-GAAP definitions below. The adjustments generally fall within the categories of non-cash items. The company believes the non-GAAP measures presented herein should always be considered along with, and not as a substitute for or superior to, the related GAAP financial measures. The company has provided the reconciliations between the GAAP and non-GAAP financial measures above.

The company defines Adjusted EBITDA as net income from operations before interest, income taxes, depreciation and amortization adjusted to exclude stock-based compensation and business combination related costs. Adjusted EBITDA is one of the key performance indicators the company uses in evaluating our operating performance and in making financial, operating, and planning decisions. The company believes adjusted EBITDA is useful to the investors of this proxy statement in the evaluation of Aeries' operating performance as such information was used by securities analysts and other interested parties as a measure of financial information and debt service capabilities, and it was used by the company's management for internal reporting and planning procedures, including aspects of our consolidated operating budget and capital expenditures.
